Flashing Back to 1996

Last spring turned out to be an outstanding season for many of Delta State's athletic teams. These next few pages highlight many of those events, as well as graduation and the 1996 Hall of Fame.

Springfest '96 was a blast! These students enjoy the activities on the quad.

Graduation 1996

College graduation is the day for which most students wait throughout their entire lives. With it comes a mixture of emotions and feelings. These students have started their course toward the future by earning a college diploma, and they all have very bright futures ahead of them. Delta State has prepared these students for what lies ahead of them. It has provided them lifelong friends, much knowledge, and most importantly an opportunity to be the best that they can possibly be. Many of these individuals will enter the workforce, some will further their educations at professional schools, and many will enroll as graduate students at Delta State. No matter what decisions these students make in their futures, DSU will always call them its own. Congratulations to the Class of 1996!

These nursing students kick up their heels on graduation day.

Shawn Sipp and Connie Pitts are all smiles on graduation day.

Girls' Bid Day

KΔ

ZTA

Each year, the fraternities and sororities at Delta State University hold a Rush Week to recruit new members. The sororities hold their Rush Week the week before school starts, and the fraternities usually hold theirs about a week or two into the new semester. After the week is over and each chapter decides on his or her new pledges, they hold a Bid Day for the people who accept their bid to join the sorority or fraternity. Girls' Bid Day usually involves a get together on the Quad and pool parties for each chapter. Guys' Bid Day is held on a Saturday and involves what fraternity members fondly call "The Mudhole." Bid Day is an exciting time where pledges and members intermingle and many friendships begin.

WHAT'S HAP

Each year, many events happen at Delta State that are quite significant. Since the school yearbook is one of the best outlets to the public, we thought that we should include these happenings in it. This book also contains a "Yearzine" published each year by Taylor publishing company that will help us remember 1996-7 vividly for years to come. The yearbook staff believes that current events and school events are two of the best ways that we can sum up an entire year, so we hope that you enjoy this tribute to DSU life!

DSU really shows its stuff in the field of sports. Many great athletes have worn green and white!

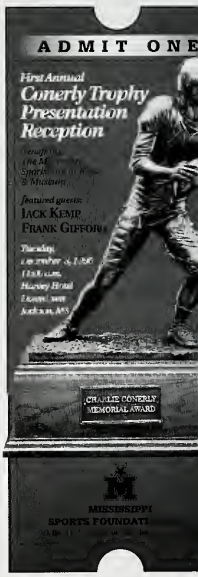
This year there are many new projects being started around campus. Just to name a few: Broom Hall is being renovated, construction has just started on an extra wing to be added to the library, and a brand new Archives building is going up.

At Delta State University, students are taught by "real" professors. Classes are smaller than those at other major universities in the state, so students really know their teachers. The ratio of teachers to students at DSU is 16:1; therefore, each teacher is able to spend time with students one on one - a definite plus!

TREG THOMAS WINS PRESTIGIOUS CONERLY AWARD



Honored as the first recipient of the Charles Conerly Trophy awarded to Mississippi's top collegiate player, Tregnel Thomas really made a name for himself at DSU. He was selected as a member of the first-team CoSIDA All-South Region team and as the Gulf South Conference's Freshman of the Year. He was also honored as an All-GSC first-team selection as a freshman. Treg is a freshman tailback from Pascagoula, MS. He had 1,604 yards on 275 carries in 10 games. He is just the second freshman to ever be selected as a Harlon Hill Trophy finalist, along with Johnny Bailey (Texas A&M) in 1986. Treg became the fifth running back in DSU history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a single season and the first freshman to surpass that milestone. He was named Gulf South Conference Offensive Player of the Week following a 202-yard performance against Arkansas Tech in only his second collegiate game. Thomas broke DSU single season records for most yards in a season (1,604), carries (275), and rushing yards per game (160.4). His 1996 rushing total is rated among the five best single-season performances by a four-year college back in the state of Mississippi. Tregnel already ranks fifth on Delta State's career rushing list after just one season.

RUBY SHOES PRESS PUBLISHES FIRST NOVEL

Ruby Shoes Press, a new regional press in the Mississippi Delta, has issued its first book. On the Way Home is a paperback collection of short stories by 12 writers associated with the geographic region.

The Press was founded by five women editors and writers: Marion Barnwell of Indianola; Carolyn Elkins, Elizabeth Sarcone, and Dorothy Shawhan of Cleveland; and Leila Wynn of Greenville. The idea grew out of a lunch conversation on the topic of "what kind of fiction the Delta was giving rise to during this decade, and - given the persistence it takes to get published - what would likely be its fate."

Ruby Shoes partners shared in the editing and in the technical processes of publication, with Elkins overseeing the computer typesetting, Shawhan drawing up contracts with the writers, Barnwell negotiating with printers, and Wynn managaing sales and distribution.

Henderson and Ferris are chosen Elliot Scholars

Jeremy Ferris, a junior from Indianola, and Mary Henderson, a senior from Cleveland, were chosen as Elliott scholars. This is a prestigious honor in the field of science and is a wonderful opportunity for these two students. Being an Elliott scholar means that Ferris and Henderson will spend next semester in Baton Rouge, LA at the Elliott laboratories. They will get hands-on experience as scientists because they will be working and studying in the labs. Requirements for Elliott scholars are excellent grades, a science major, and overall well-roundedness. Mary is involved in numerous activities on campus including SAA, SGA, AED, and being president of Kappa Delta sorority. Jeremy is involved in AED, SGA committees, intramural sports, and Kappa Alpha Order. Delta State is proud of these students and honors their successes.

ODK
BLOOD DRIVE

Each year, the members of Omicron Delta Kappa sponsor a blood drive at Delta State University. It is held in the State Room of the Union and is always in the fall. The blood drive is ODK's biggest project of the year. Students from DSU always support this blood drive and make it a huge success. In past years, it has been a tradition to battle with our old rivals Mississippi College to see who could get the most participation in the drive, and for the past couple of years, DSU has won. Now, even though the rivalry has died down, DSU still brings in a large turnout on the days of the drive.

Delta State is currently ranked one of the top five colleges and universities in America according to a national poll.

THOSE GREEKS!

COLOPHON

Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, TX at its plant in Dallas, printed 2300 copies of the 208 page 1997 BROOM. This 81/2 by 11 book contains pages printed on 80 pound enamel paper. Included in the book is a sewn-in yearzine put out by Taylor. The book contains 2 flats of four-color pages. Colors used were Sapphire No.13, Process Red No. 35, Brilliant Yellow No. 51, and Deep Green No. 23.

Body and caption type throughout the book were in Times Roman at 12 pt. standard and 14 pt. solid. Headlines were printed in Durante, Times Roman, Typewriter American, and Eric Bold at various point sizes.

Photos were taken by Bill Powell, Suzette Carver, and Mickey Makamson. Color pictures were taken by Bill Powell.

The cover was a spin-off of the 1996 BROOM cover designed by Dee Horn. It is quarter bound in green velum #37 with black matte. We applied black 910 and gold 917. The cover and endsheets are embossed with the DSU emblem. The endsheet is rainbow grey felt with applied black ink 910.

The BROOM staff would like to thank our Taylor representative Ben Allen for all of his help and cooperation.

Well, the 1997 yearbook is finally finished. I hope that you have all enjoyed the book and will always remember 1997 at DSU fondly. This year the yearbook staff and I have tried to "spice up" the book and use more viewer-friendly backgrounds and print. We have worked really hard to bring this yearbook to you on time and in the right order! I want to especially thank Suzette Carver, Jennifer Kent, Jimmy Cochran, Leigh Anna Herring, Jennifer Thomas, and Duke McCrory for putting in many extra hours to meet those tedious deadlines. I would also like to thank Bill Powell and the Public Information Department for answering my many questions and for helping to make this book a success. However, this yearbook would not exist if not for the terrific students and faculty at Delta State. Many thanks goes out to all of you for your successes and achievements. I have really enjoyed this year as editor of the yearbook thanks to all of the support and help I have gotten from my excellent staff.

BETSY REED
Broom Editor
